

THE HONOURABLE DR DAVID C LAM AWARD

2005 ASSESSMENT REPORT

ON WINNERS

Dr. David C. Lam,
Former Lieutenant-Governor
of British Columbia, Canada

The Honorable David C. Lam Award for Outstanding Performance

Purpose

The Honorable David C. Lam Award was established in 2003 for the 288th Calgary Chinese Scout Group.

The Award is sponsored by the Honorable Dr David C. Lam, the first Chinese appointed Lieutenant-Governor in Canada. The outstanding achievement of Dr David C Lam sets a good example for our youth members to pursue, and remind them of servicing and supporting the Chinese Community in their future.

The Award aims to stimulate, encourage and recognize the youth members' achievement in:

- Self reliance
- Self discipline
- Initiative
- Voluntary service
- Physical fitness

This also gives the Group and the youth members an annual opportunity to review our performance, merits and shortfall, and set a directive for the next year.

Assessment

At each year ending in July, the recommendations of the 3 sectional leaders will be submitted to the Group Committee for their decision, and approval.

The Assessment Criteria are different according to the age group of the sections:

Venturer Company	Age 14 to 17
Scout Troop	Age 11 to 14
Cub Pack	Age 7 to 10

Presentation of the Award

The Award will be presented to the winners at an annual event in summer or fall.

Cub Pack (Age 7 to 10)

Assessment Criteria 2004-2005

1. All youth members will be assessed according to the following criteria:
 - A. Attendance
 - To attend at least 85% of the cub section events, except for excused absence.
 - B. Punctuality
 - To be punctual for more than 85% of all events.
 - C. Uniform
 - To dress neatly, tidily and properly at all events.
 - D. Performance
 - To demonstrate leadership, co-operation and discipline during indoor and outdoor activities.
 - E. Fundraising
 - To try his/her best in the fundraising activities.
 - F. Badges
 - To earn at least 4 badges out of 12 badges in the whole scouting year.
2. Meeting the above requirements qualify the Cub member for the Honourable Dr. David C. Lam Award.
3. To encourage the recipient promoting to Scout section, he/she can only be awarded maximum 3 times during his/her tenure in the Cub section.

Scout Troop (Age 11 to 14)

Assessment Criteria 2004-2005

1. Attitude:
 - Show respect, consideration and kindness to others.
 - Behave appropriately during activities (Playful during games, serious when completing tasks, well-mannered at all times).
2. Discipline:
 - Pay attention to information and requests from others.
 - Consistently follow instructions.
 - Ensure information is communicated in a timely and thorough fashion.
 - Active and prompt follow-up on assigned tasks.
3. Helpfulness:
 - Cheerfully and willingly help others to the best of one's abilities.
 - Actively looking for and acting on opportunities both in day to day interaction and organized community projects.
 - Establish trustworthiness among peers, scouters and parents.
4. Participation:
 - Proactively participate in all activities.
 - Attend organized activities whenever possible.
 - Show interest and enthusiasm throughout the activities.
5. Preparedness:
 - Live by Scout motto of "Be Prepared" in all occasions.
 - Willingly increase knowledge and skills for new situations.
 - Complete preparations required for activities.
 - Have appropriate gears and clothing (including uniform) for all activities.
6. Outdoor Skills:
 - Demonstrate application of essential skills in outdoor activities including orienteering, camping, outdoor cooking, physical performance etc...
7. Scouting Knowledge & Skill:
 - Demonstrate knowledge of scouting activities, including ceremonies, campfires, songs, scouting history, knotting etc...

All youth members will be assessed according to the above by Scout Troop Scouters and final decisions be made by Troop Leader on any dispute.

Venturer Company (Age 14 to 17)

Assessment Criteria 2004-2005

1. Member registered to participate in the Award must complete the requirements in below within one year.
2. Participants must successfully complete the requirements in the 2 Groups in below:

Group A requirements:

Participants can choose to complete at least 2 of the following 4 items:

- A. School marks average 75
- B. 20 hours of volunteer service
- C. To assist in the planning and leading of two outdoor activities for either the Cub Pack or the Scout Troop.
- D. To participate in at least 2 or half of the Group Fund Raising activities, whichever the less.

Group B requirements:

Participants can choose to complete one of the following 6 items:

- A. Dream trip
- B. 4 days 3 nights winter camp (At least 40 km hiking, and must be between November and May)
- C. The Duke of Edinburgh's Award
- D. Queen's Venturer Award
- E. 288 Self-challenging program
Including: 200m swimming, 80km highway biking and 8 km jogging
- F. Completion of the 3 levels of the Summit Program

The Honourable Dr David C Lam Award

2004-2005 Report on Award Winners

As of September 2005

Cub Pack

Derrick Wong

Derrick aged 9, joined the Cub section for 2 years. He has always been punctual and keen on attending all indoor and outdoor activities. His willingness to accept challenge and positive attitude displayed his good leadership skill. He demonstrates good effort in our group's fundraising events.

Scout Troop

Simon Tam

As an experienced Scout in the troop he always shows his willingness to help the other troop members. Scouters are being impressed by his performance/leadership during Southern Brotherhood Jamboree.

Kevin Nham

Kevin swam up from the Cub section. Within the troop he is the one who earned most challenge badges in 04/05 scout year. Scouters always remember his voluntarily in taking the food storage box from the campus during Southern Brotherhood Jamboree.

Edward Yu

Edward is also the first year scout swam up from the Cub Section. He has good participation. He exercises Scouts spirit "Do Your Best" and "Be Prepared" in each and every of the Scouting activity.

Venturer Company

Due to the timing of the members' school work, and the clash with the scouting activities, none of the members had been able to complete the requirements of the Award this year.

(Note: All the nominated members for the Award have been tabled and approved by the 288 Group Committee in September 2005.)

Photo Sections

Awards for City Services (Cubs section)

Awards for City Services (Cubs section)

Awards for City Services (Venturer)

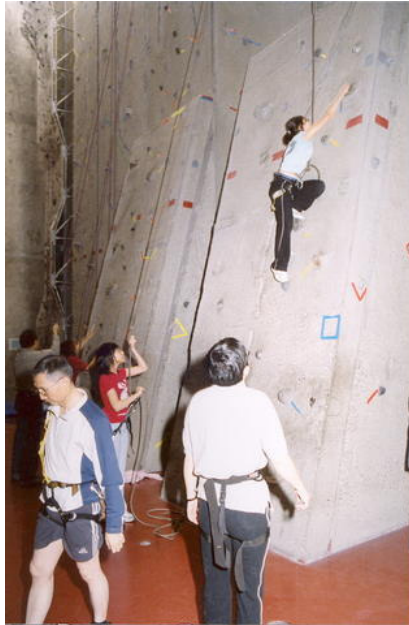

Awards for City Services (Scouts section)

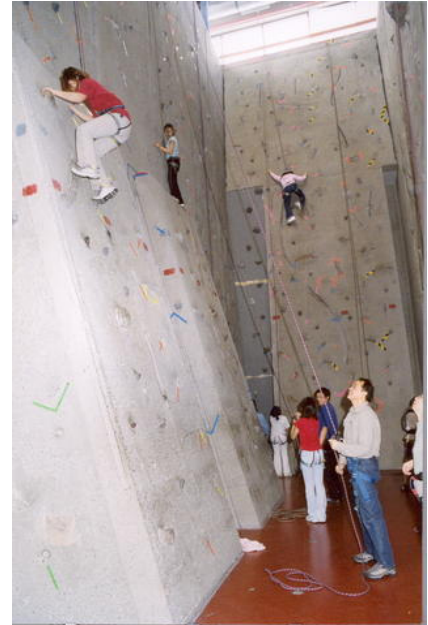

288 Calgary Chinese Group

Wall Climb at U of C

We have a lot of good climbers

Ready to go up again

Scouts Hiking Trip (Temp -19 degree)

Cubs Hiking at Edworthy Park

The trail was very icy

Cubs Hiking at Edworthy Park

Chinese New Year at Chinese Culture Center

A Cub member demonstration

Twenty fleets look-out Tower

Building of the Look-Out Tower